

Eat Enough A Safe Rule

Have No Fear of Sour Stomach, Gastritis, or Distress Due to Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

From the daily food the system must have a diversified supply of materials or parts of the digestive machinery will quit for lack of work.

Therefore, the cut down food on a starvation diet calls for a degree of selective knowledge that very few men possess. The best plan is to eat anything you like and as much of a variety as possible.
Follow meals with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and you supply the stomach with an alkaline effect which enables digestion to go on without uneasiness, rumblings, water brash, biliousness, coated tongue, abnormal thirst, and the feeling of drowsiness after eating. Get a cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will realize why so many physicians have recommended them for indigestion and dyspepsia.

STRANGE POISONING!

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalide Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called "An-uric"—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside.
If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you should obtain "An-uric" at the drug store; or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package. "An-uric" is many times more potent than lithia.

Stomach on Strike 20 Years Eaton's Settled It!

"Eaton's is wonderful," says C.
W. Burton. "I had been a sufferer from stomach trouble for 20 years and now I am well." Eaton's gets right after the cause of stomach troubles by taking up and carrying out the acidity and gases and of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well. If you have sourness, belching, indigestion, food repeating or any other stomach trouble, take Eaton's tablets after each meal and find relief. Big box costs only a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and drive away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and obvious and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, declares that this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed Peoples Drug Stores to guarantee it in every instance.

Dinner Parties Round Out Full Calendar

THE VICE PRESIDENT AND MRS. MARSHALL will be honored guests at the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sauls-bury are giving tonight. During many of the years of his service in public life Mr. Saulsbury was President pro tempore of the Senate and his relations with Vice President Marshall, who is ex-officio President of that distinguished body, were always close and cordial. The Saulsburys' dinner for the Vice President and his wife was always one of the most interesting of the official dinners of the season and they also to give a reception each year at which members of the Senate, with the ladies of their families, were asked to meet the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall.

Since their retirement to private life, Mr. and Mrs. Saulsbury have been living at their home in Willington, spending part of each season in Washington. This year they have Mrs. Philip Sheridan's house in Massachusetts avenue and have been giving a series of pleasant parties there.

The Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Meredith will be hosts at another interesting dinner party this evening, entertaining in compliment to the former Governor of Ohio and Mrs. Cox, who are visiting Judge and Mrs. Timothy T. Anseberry.
Mrs. Meredith will be at home tomorrow afternoon and will have Mrs. Cox visiting with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller and Mr. and Mrs. William Littler will also be among the dinner hosts tonight.

Mrs. Robert MacKenzie will entertain twenty-six guests at dinner this evening at her home in R street in honor of her guests, Mrs. Richmond P. Kattrail and Mrs. James O. K. Hasson, both of Cleveland, who are on their way to Palm Beach.

Mrs. MacKenzie will take her guests later to the supper dance at the Maison Dupont, which is the last of the series of supper dances which have been given there this winter.

Mr. Richardson and P. Harley Moseley will entertain a company of guests for dinner at the Maison Dupont before the supper dance in honor of Miss Yvonne Tenth, the guest of the Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouitch.

Comdr. Theodore Jewell, U. S. N., will also entertain guests for dinner before the supper dance.

Beginning next Tuesday evening the Maison Dupont will give a dinner dance every Tuesday evening.
The supper dances have proved to be so popular that the series of dinner dances will be welcomed by society.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson will be the guest of honor at the annual breakfast of the Congressional Club at Raucher's on Tuesday, February 8, at 2 o'clock.

Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State, who is due to reach Hampton Roads tomorrow after his trip to South America, is expected in Washington on Thursday. Mrs. Colby was entertained at luncheon today by Mrs.
Richard Fuller.

Miss Frances Ross, sister of Lady Geddes, who has been a guest at the British embassy for a fortnight, has returned to New York.

Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell entertained at luncheon today in compliment to the Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Riano and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKee, of Baltimore.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will be the honor guests at the dinner which Mrs. Bromwell will give on Thursday evening and on Friday she will have another luncheon with the Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Riano, the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. LeBreton, and General Pershing among the guests.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond was hostess at luncheon today, entertaining for twenty-six guests. Among them were Mrs. Pezet, Mrs. Robert L. Owen, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs.
Sara Lee Thayer, Mrs. C. Copley, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. James Biddle, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs.
Thomas F. Walsh, and Mrs. Huntington Williams of Baltimore who is staying with Mrs. Hammond.

Alessandro Mariani first secretary of the Italian embassy, who will sail for Italy on February 10, has given up his apartment in P. street. After spending two days in Washington, Va., Mr. Mariani has gone to Atlantic City to remain until February 1 when he will return to Washington.

Mrs. U. S. Grant, Jr., will be hostess at tea this afternoon at her home in Sixteenth street. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dennis Nolan, Mrs. Louis

MISS VIRGINIA HARRISON, Daughter of Francis Burton Harrison, governor general of the Philippines, who is visiting Miss Adeline Oxnard.

Hertie, Mrs. Paul Reinsch, Mrs.
Thomas B. Hutchinson, Mrs. John Stone, and Mrs. Alexander Sharp, Jr.

Mrs. J. Ryan Devereux will be hostess at a large bridge party this afternoon in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. O'Reilly, of New Orleans, and Mrs. Richard H. Jeschke, daughter of the hostess. There will be seventeen tables of bridge. Mrs.
Jeschke, who was Miss Margaret Devereux before her marriage, is spending a few days with her mother on her way from Paris Island, S. C., to Norfolk, where Captain Jeschke has been transferred for duty. Mrs.
O'Reilly is spending the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Devereux.

Mrs. T. DeWitt Talmage has arrived in Washington and will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins until February when she will go to the Willard for the early spring months.
Mrs. Talmage's son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Pitt Scott, have taken a house at Newport, where Captain Scott is now on duty.

Mrs. Edward Pinckney will arrive from Cleveland the last of this week to stay with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker. Mrs. William C. Potter, of New York, will also be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walker, arriving next week.

Mrs. Oscar T. Crosby, and Miss Celeste Crosby, who have been at the Lafayette Hotel, are returning shortly to Warrenton, Va., to remain while Mr. Crosby is on a trip to Haiti.

John Barrett, former Director General of the Pan American Union, has returned to his apartment at 1712 H street after an absence of several weeks. He will leave again early in February for a trip to Florida and Cuba.

Miss Evelina Gleaves, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Gleaves, has come from Baltimore for a visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.
John Spottwood Garland. She was the guest for whom Comdr. C. T.
Jewell gave a small theater party last night, taking his guests to see "Monsieur Beaucaire" at the National Theater.

Miss Gleaves is spending the winter in Baltimore with Mrs. Edgar Allan Poe while her parents are in the Orient.

At the Tuesday evening ride of the Riding and Hunt Club this evening Mrs. Frank Hight and Major Harold Rayner, Mrs. W. Sinclair Bowen and Col. Harry N. Cooke will lead. A dance will follow the drill and a few guests have been invited in addition to the club members.

DRAMA LEAGUE PLAYS.

Many interests will focus in the Drama League program, which is a feature of the Near East Relief ball tonight at the Hotel Washington. In the first place the object of the ball, aid for the starving children of Armenia and the Bible land of Asia, makes a peculiar appeal. Then the fact that four unusual one-act plays are to be presented before the dancing provides a special attraction that will draw many persons who are not keen for the dancing.

The dramatic performance will begin promptly at 8:15, and will be followed by a ball.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson heads the list of patronesses which includes the following: Mrs. Bainbridge Colby, Mrs. David F. Houston, Mrs. Newton

Mrs. Cromwell Brooks gave a dinner party last night, taking her guest later to Senator Phelan's dance. In the party were Mrs. Grafton Minot, Miss Gladys Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs.
Henri de Sibour, Miss Isabelle May, Mrs. Roscoe Bulmer, Miss Lota Bobbs, Senator Phelan, Mr. and Mrs.
George O. Squier, Col. William E.
Horton, Major John G. Quekemyer, Lieutenant Snyder, and John B. Henderson, Jr.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the President-elect, had luncheon quietly at the Willard Hotel yesterday afternoon as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. King. Her presence was early discovered and she held an impromptu reception.

Mrs. Harding has become a patroness for the Coalition Club of George Washington University, one of the sororities which includes representatives from all departments of the college. George Washington University conferred an honorary degree on the President-elect long before he was mentioned as a candidate for the Presidency, and the fact that Mrs. Harding has identified herself with the college organization has caused much enthusiasm among the students.

Mrs. Wendell Phillips Stafford, wife of the associate justice of the Supreme Court, also will be a patroness for the club.

The Coalition Club, which is about a year old, was the first to organize for the purpose of unifying scholastic, social, and athletic interests in the university. The charter members are Hildred Egan, president; Ella Taggart, ice president; Dorothy Johnston, secretary; Ruth Bennett, treasurer; Gladys Twine, Margaret Smith, Fred Lee Woodson, Lucy Manning, and Thelma Baines.
Mary O'Shanon Webster was installed last Saturday evening when the sorority met with Miss Johnston at the Rochambeau.

Miss Felicia Taylor, of Tennessee, is visiting her cousin, Miss Helen Hill Hopkins, and will go from Washington to Florida, where she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor. Miss Taylor passed the summer in Europe after being graduated with the class of 1920 at Hollins College, Va. Miss Hopkins will give a tea for her guest tomorrow. The two girls will pass the week-end in Annapolis.

Dr. George D. Kirkpatrick has returned to Washington, after an extended Western trip, and has taken apartments at the Farragut.

Mrs. Marshall Field, who will give a buffet luncheon on Thursday for the members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and its conductor, Frederick Stock, will be assisted by thirty ladies prominent in Washington society. Prihoda, the violinist, is soloist with the orchestra.

Among those who will occupy boxes and orchestra stalls at the concert of the Washington University, Mrs.
Thomas B. Hutchinson, Mrs. John
Hammond, Mrs. W. J. Boardman, Mrs.
Robert W. Bliss, Mrs. Weston P.
Chamberlain, Mrs. Avery Conoley, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. R. E. Hill, Mrs. F.
A. Keep, Mrs. Edward B. McLean, Mrs. Grafton Minot, Mrs. Henry Kirk Porter, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. W. A. Slater, Mrs. B. H. Warder, Mrs. W. Ward Denys, Admiral and Mrs. Capps, Mrs. W. R. Castle, Mrs. E. H. Everett, Mrs. John Gibbons, Miss Hilda Fletcher, Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Beale Howard, Mrs. George E.
Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph Hampton, Mrs.
W. W. Gibson, Mrs. Stuart Farrar Smith, Mrs. E. J. Stelwagen, and Mrs.
Gibank Twigg.

ALABAMA SOCIETY FETE.

The old South and the new were pleasantly suggested in the hospitality extended to hundreds of guests last evening at the annual ball of the Alabama Society which took place at the Willard. The ballroom was pretenuously decorated with southern smiles and southern flowers adorned the supper table.

There was no receiving line and instead of the usual formal greeting of guests, Mrs. P. T. Carter, head of the ball committee, acted as hostess. She was assisted by the other members of the committee, Mrs. W. I. Hitchcock, Mrs. W. T. Willett, Mrs. George S.
Barnard, Mrs. Q. B. Newman, Maj. T.
V. Walker and Messrs. F. E. Conway and Grady P. Gandy. Before the dancing, during which the orchestra played many old southern melodies, there was a short musical program.
Mrs. Edmund O'Brien sang several songs, Claude Robeson playing her accompaniment, and Paul Collins was heard in several violin solos.

Among those having boxes were Congressman and Mrs. John McDuffie, who had as their guests Congressman and Mrs. William Webb Venable, Maj. and Mrs. C. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wise, of Mobile, Ala.; Mrs. Randall, of Monroeville, Ala.; Tom Fosque, of Grove Hill, Ala.; Congressman H. B. Steagall entertained in his box Maj. and Mrs. J. F. Johnson, Miss Eula Thomas, Miss Margaret Steagall and Miss Mira Steagall.

MRS. MCCORMICK HERE.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, who came from Palm Beach to meet her husband, Senator McCormick, in New York, on his arrival from Europe, is passing several days with her mother, Mrs.
M. A. Hanna, before returning South, where she and her children propose staying through the spring.

Mrs. Robert Lansing and Mrs. William Duguid MacDougall, national president of the alumnae of Smith College, will be guests of honor tomorrow.
